R. WAKEHAM

To: Foreign Patent Review Committee Date: July 25, 1974

From: William B. Cridlin, Jr.

Subject: Foreign Filing Review and Patent Docket Review

I have received the individual comments of each committee member and there is substantial agreement on only three of the seven reviewed foreign cases. There is a majority opinion to maintain 582-527; 582-552 and 582-560. The remaining four cases should be reconsidered in order to arrive at a majority recommendation. Accordingly, I suggest we meet on July 31st at 10:00 A.M. in the A-2 conference room to discuss this matter.

The booklet is being returned to you in order for each individual to familiarize himself with his previous recommendations.

At the same time we can also hold a docket review. The list of cases will be sent to you by next Monday.
